

Marriage Therapy

In the Matter of John Marron, Marriage Therapist

On April 4, 2006, the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy Examiners accepted the voluntary surrender of the license of John Marron, marriage therapist, with prejudice. The action was based upon Marron falsifying or uttering a billing statement to an insurance carrier for reimbursement of services provided, knowing that the bill contained false information with purpose to deceive and/or conceal wrongdoing.

In the Matter of Evelyn Wilson, Marriage Therapist/Licensed Certified Social Worker

On April 13, 2006, the Boards of Social Work Examiners and Marriage and Family Therapy Examiners revoked the licenses of Evelyn Wilson, licensed certified social worker and licensed marriage family therapist, with prejudice. The action by the two Boards was based upon findings that Wilson failed to keep adequate client progress notes and proper patient records, submitted bills containing inaccurate dates of services, and her failure to conform her record keeping to appropriate practices despite her claim to the contrary. Subsequently, Wilson pled guilty to theft by deception in that she submitted fraudulent health insurance claims to Horizon Blue Cross/Blue Shield for services that were never rendered.

Nursing

In the Matter of Kathryn McGlynn, R.N.

On April 18, 2006, the State Board of Nursing suspended the nursing license of Kathryn McGlynn, R.N., for a period of three years with the first six months active and the remainder stayed to be a period of probation. The action was based upon McGlynn steering Medicaid residents to a pharmacy for their prescription needs and receiving kickbacks.

In the Matter of Russell P. Smith, III, L.P.N.

On August 18, 2006, the State Board of Nursing accepted the permanent surrender of the nursing license of Russell P. Smith, III, to be deemed a revocation. The action was based upon Smith pleading guilty to one count of a Medicaid indictment charging criminal sexual contact involving a nursing home resident.

Cosmetology/Hairstyling

In the Matter of Linda Kaiser, Beautician

On June 29, 2006, the State Board of Cosmetology and Hairstyling suspended the license of Linda Kaiser, beautician, indefinitely, based upon Kaiser having entered into a Consent Order with OIFP based upon disability fraud.

Bureau of Securities

In the Matter of David Wiseman, Securities Dealer

The New Jersey Bureau of Securities summarily revoked the license of David Wiseman, security dealer, to function as a securities dealer in the State of New Jersey. The action was based on a Summary Judgment entered against Wiseman for knowingly making statements containing false or misleading information in pursuit of an insurance claim against an insurance carrier for theft of personal property.

Department of Health and Senior Services/Office of EMS

In the Matter of Kevin Lewandowski, E.M.T.

The Department of Health and Senior Services/Office of EMS revoked the EMT certification of Kevin Lewandowski, EMT. The action was based on Lewandowski pleading guilty in Middlesex County Superior Court to conspiracy to commit aggravated arson following his involvement in a fraudulent stolen automobile theft claim.
